

PRESS RELEASE

Executive Committee Appointment

Kuujuuaq, Québec – March 4, 2011 – Earlier this week at its regular winter sitting, the Council of the Kativik Regional Government (KRG) appointed from among its municipal elected representatives a new Executive Committee member. The new member is Michael Cameron of Salluit.

The Executive Committee is responsible for the management of the affairs of the KRG and ensures that the decisions of the KRG Council are carried out. The five-member team is now composed of:

Maggie Emudluk – Chairperson
Joseph Annahatak – Vice-Chairperson
Mary A. Pilurtoot
Aisara Kenuajuak
Michael Cameron

The KRG is a non-ethnic public organization created in 1978, under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement. The organization has jurisdiction over nearly the entire territory of Québec north of the 55th parallel in areas such as municipal matters, transportation, the environment, policing, employment, labour training, income security, childcare services, renewable resources, land-use planning, civil security and economic development.
