

TEAM NUNAVIK-QUÉBEC

Bring on the games!

Monday
March 17,
2014
Issue 1

Today's Weather
-1C

Tuesday's Weather
-1C

Team Nunavik- Québec: Flag bearer Eduah Jones and teammates at the AWG Opening Ceremonies in Fairbanks on Sunday evening.

F

Coming up Tuesday, March 18

 Arctic Sports
Competition -9 a.m.-6:30 p.m.
Lathrop High School

 Badminton
9 a.m.-8:30 p.m.
North Pole High School

 Dene Games, Snowshoe
Day off

 Cross-Country
10 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

 Table Tennis
Day off

 Cultural - Nunavik
12-2 p.m. Bentley Mall Performance

Wisdom and Experience Shared

Elder Lukasi Nappaluk, 64, is with Team Nunavik-Quebec and believes in the power of sport. "When the young people have something to do, it's good for the mind, it's good for the body and it's good for the life," he says. The Kangiqsujuaq resident wants the team to get many Gold Ulus and enjoy the games.

Check TNQ's Facebook Page for the latest pics and videos @ Team Nunavik-Québec

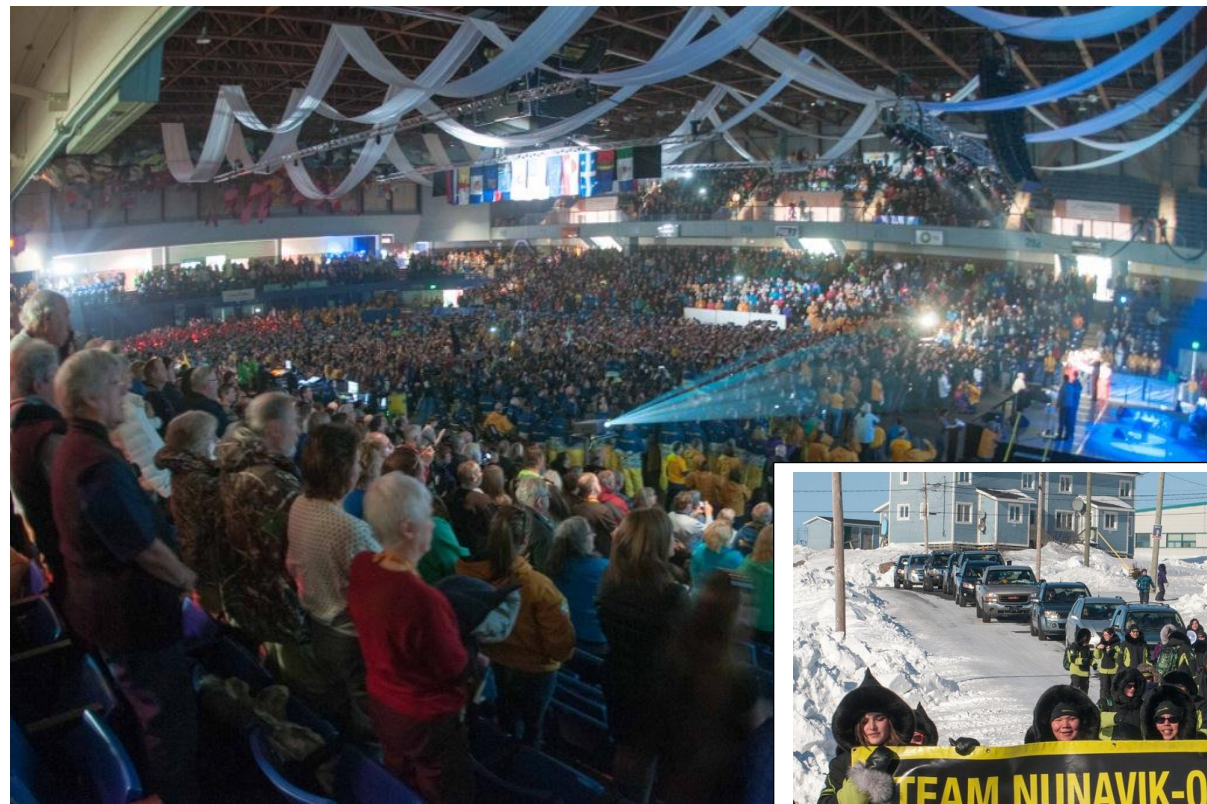

TEAM NUNAVIK-QUÉBEC

Pictures from TNQ's road to the games and AWG Opening Ceremonies

Welcome Message Maggie Emudluk Chairperson, KRG

I would like to welcome everyone to the 23rd Arctic Winter Games in Fairbanks, Alaska. I'm extremely proud of Team Nunavik-Quebec's athletes, coaches and mission staff who represent our region so well. As always, the AWG will celebrate sport, culture and fair play. Please enjoy your week, make friends and build lasting memories. Let's go TNQ!

2014 TNQ Fast Facts

Number of athletes: 62 Number of cultural performers: 5
Day One Ulu Count (to four p.m.) 1 Gold, 1 Silver, 3 Bronze

Left: Opening Ceremonies in Fairbanks.
Centre: Team Nunavik-Quebec marches to the pep rally before the games. Top right: Flying the TNQ flag before boarding the charter to the games.