The KRPF Seizes Alcohol Intended for Resale

Kuujuuaq, Quebec, July 9, 2018 – On July 3 and 4, the Kativik Regional Police Force (KRPF) executed two separate search warrants, seizing a large amount of illegal alcohol being shipped to Akulivik. Charges have been laid against two individuals.

Local KRPF officers were able to collect information and build an investigation to successfully stop the illegal sale of the alcohol in the community. The first warrant led to the seizure of 46 twenty-six-ounce bottles of vodka. The second warrant uncovered 6 clear four-litre bags of 94% alcohol.

Information on suspicious activities, including the illegal sale of alcohol and drugs, can be communicated confidentially to the KRPF via the toll free number 1-800-711-1800. Rewards of up to $2,000 may be paid for information.

The Kativik Regional Police Force (KRPF) was created by the Kativik Regional Government in 1996 with the participation of the Solicitor General of Canada and the Ministère de la Sécurité publique du Québec (public security) to maintain peace, order and public safety in Nunavik. The KRPF has police detachments in all 14 communities. The mission of the KRPF and each of its members pursuant to the Police Act is to maintain peace, order and public security; to prevent and repress crime and offences under the law and municipal by-laws in the Kativik Region; as well as to apprehend offenders.
